

I am strongly opposed to the broadcast flag rule. This new regulation would be severely damaging to the general welfare, and do little to further its claimed goal. Forcing software to be crippled is not the solution to any problem.